THE LOST CABLE .- In conversation with Mr. OWTGOMERY, last evening, we learned that the cable lost at Cairo cost about $1,400, and was part of that lost in laying to Newfoundland. Everything was in readiness to lay it, and the steamer Golden Gold engaged at the rate of $25 per hour to do it; she took a flatboat in few to place it upon, and in calling from the wharfheat thereon, the mate used short plank instead of a stage plank, as suggested by Mr. M., and used as a preventative to its rolling too Endeavors were made to assertain its whereabouts, but | fense of the President, and of the principles of the Demo without success. The loss is attributable to the carelessness of the mate and his crew. It is the intention of Mr. oat if the cable is not recovered within ten days. Fraudulent Imitations of Superior Commodities.
Among the many dishonestics of trade which the meral sense of the community is called upon to suppress, we would particularly notice a most perticular and inflamous practice adopted by unscrupations dealers, of imitating and counterfeiting the exterior appearance and precantionary labels of popular drags, medicaments, and other articles of personal consumption, and thus, by seizing upon the well acquired reputation of an entrprising trader, paining off most destructive and worthless competities, to the sore detriment not only of the one unserpost to the character of the man who has expended thousands of deliars in bringing the genuine article late estem and demand. These petty largery thieves are the test of all homorable dealers and traders and the trader is as much highway robbery as the violent appropriation of their neighbor's purse; in fact, they are beneath the burglar and highwayman in deputity—for these latter felons exhibit a bravery or rocklessagess of character in owice distinguishing the mercantile assaishs who stab in the dark. And ought they not to be rewarded with a the sight addition of a real relative peak localiza-avoidance of the law against counterfeiting; the bottless were very similar, and everything prepared to impose upon a careless purchaser. Now is not the man who perpetrated this fraud a felou, a robber? Assuredly bu-its; for as Mr. Wolfe has expended large sums to bring his genuine imported Schnapps into papular demand, that demand may be justify considered a part of his capital in
